Join the Rural Partnerships Institute (RPI) at the University of Wisconsin-Madison at the upcoming Extreme Weather and Climate Services Roadshow - Northern Wisconsin.

We'll Discuss...

- How is extreme weather affecting rural Wisconsin?
- What are the most pressing weather and climate-related questions facing rural communities?
- What information will help rural communities and residents better understand and prepare for extreme weather?

You'll Learn About...

- Weather and climate services provided by the Wisconsin State Climatology Office
- Wisconet - Wisconsin's network of weather and soil monitoring stations
- RPI's project supporting extreme weather preparedness in rural Wisconsin

Ask questions and talk about your experiences with extreme weather!

Free registration is required. Please register by Wednesday, November 26th.

If you have questions about the event, please contact Jackson Parr, Climate Hazards Planning Educator, University of Wisconsin Division of Extension, at jgparr@wisc.edu.
